NORWAY AND VICINITY.
The Bakery store is to be opened by the first of January.

One sees lots of new faces on the street now-a-days.

McIntire & Johnson drove a flock of sheep through the village Monday.

The village schools will commence Tuesday, Dec. 8th.

H. M. Beane has commenced to make repairs on the Upper Grist Mill.

C. H. Huskell is building an addition to his stable.

James Danforth of Oxford, has moved to Norway.

J. G. Rowe has recently returned from a visit to Lynn and Boston.

S. L. Crockett has been in Boston the past week buying holiday goods.

Sleigh bells of all kinds and sizes at C. G. Munroe's.

Will Moore says he has room to store carriages which are left with him to be touched up and varnished.

C. N. Tubbs & Co. have commenced pork packing and those in want of fresh pork would do well to call.

In the Middle Primary School, Tuttle, teacher, Lena Packard and Nellie Walker were not absent one-half day.

E. E. Millett's store inside was painted by George Cheney of Portland. It is a good piece of work.

Gene Warren has attended several terms of the village school and has not been absent a single day.

Dr. Wm. L. Lapham has been in town a few days the past week, collecting facts for the Town History.

Florida oranges, Malaga grapes, cranberries, vegetables and domestic cheese at F. H. Hynes' Grocery Store.

A cartload of rejected corn just received at C. B. Cummings' Grist Mill and will be sold at a bargain in quantities to suit purchasers.

There has been a rush at Millett's Boot and Shoe Store since Monday.
Their many customers are pleased with the bargains there found.

Captain and Mrs. Whitmarsh and daughter, spent Thanksgiving at Lawrence, Mass. They were there to attend a wedding of a relative.

Bargains in second hand stores at Mason's Store Emporium, Norway Block. Call and examine his stock of new stores before purchasing elsewhere.
See ad.

Mrs. H. W. Twombly shipped and fell on the side-walk Wednesday and was badly injured. No bones were broken, however.

John F. Allen wants a boot and shoe repairer. Address or apply in person at his store. Permanent work and good wages to the right person.

A. F. Jackson's strain of Knox horses have come into the standard. One of Phil Sheridan Jr.'s colts trotted in 2-27 seconds in Massachusetts.

Cyrus Kneeland, the proprietor of the "Albany Basin," was in town visiting his daughter, Mrs. David Jordan, the past week.

John Freeman recently caught 500-00 shiners for bait. They are lively ones and will be sold cheap to the fishermen.

H. M. Beane's Pathfinder colts, gained 34 pounds in ten days, and in twenty days he gained 65 pounds. The colts are two years old and considerable of a grower.

Will Moore painted the signs for E. E.
Millett's boot and shoe store. They are daisy designs and show that Moore does good work in the line as he does on carriages and sleighs.

Rustfield Lodge of Good Templars was fully attended Saturday evening.
It is a prosperous organization and has a membership of nearly two hundred we understand.

There was a good attendance at the Ladies' Circle at Concert Hall last Tuesday evening. The supper was excellent, as usual, and the farce of "Love of a Bonnet" was presented by the ladies in a very pleasing manner.

C. S. Mason has sold a hundred pair of skates and a hundred pairs of skates have been m. de happy. He has some of the best makes of skates, the same of heating and cooking stoves. Carpenters' hardware can here be found as well as edge tools.

The first O. F. was Dr. O. N. Bradbury and the first scribe was A. J. Rowe.
The Encumbment has a membership of 70. Funds on hand and investment $800. Paid for sick and deceased members $450.

The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the State of Maine has presented the degree staff of the Norway Lodge No. 16 with resolutions of thanks for their very valuable exemplification of the subordinate degree work before the recent meeting of the Grand Lodge at Portland. It is one of the most beautiful specimens of non-work ever presented in this country. It was presented by the Degree Business College of Augusta.
The resolutions are on exhibition at H. Cole's.

At the Upper Primary School, Ella Montion, teacher, much credit is due to Guy Bennett and Frankie France, who did not miss one-half day during the term, also to Victor Whitman, Mi-lie Bibbe, Della Frost, Hattie Orin, for their regularity and attendance; and Tommy Keller, who was absent only half day only. The teacher extends her thanks to the scholars in remembrance of an appropriate gift presented to her at the close of the term.

of C. L. Hathaway.

A lot of Diaries and Almanacs for 1886 just received at Noyes' Drug Store. We will sell last year's Holiday Goods at wholesale prices for a few days to make room for new goods.

The Literary Committee on the Norway Centennial celebration met Tuesday and organized with C. F. Whitman chairman, and S. S. Stearns, secy.

The Noyes Drug Store has recently been painted inside, papered with beautiful paper overhead and nicely refitted. Steve Pottle did the work.
The store is in readiness for a large stock of Holiday Goods.

C. B. Adams has been so busy he has not found time to change his business, but he is constantly receiving and selling new goods. He invites all to call.

Geo. A. Cole has been repairing the dam the past week. The boys had a fine time digging the heels in the sawdust in the hot of the river while the water was drawn off.

secy, and the first secy was A. J. Rowe.
The Lodge has $2000 invested in real estate and has paid in stock and fund his $2700. Fourteen of its members have died.

The gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon at the Memorial church was well attended. E. H.
Brown presided and stirring remarks were made by each speaker. "The A. B. C. of Sobriety," by Rev. O. N. Bradbury, Rev. O. S. Pillsbury and president Sunday A. B. C. was well presented. The meeting was a success and the cause of temperance is being advanced.

Last Friday evening the drama "Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea" was presented at the Memorial church.
The hall was full of people and all joined in saying it was an excellent play and well presented. The actors were all children. A good attendance was expected.
